

MORE OF THE OLD PUT

A look back at the Putnam Division Railroad

Wednesday, October 28th 7:00 pm

Briarcliff Manor Public Library
Robert Crandall Program Room

Joe Schiavone
will present the story of the "Old Put"
the Putnam Division of the New York Central Railroad which ran from the Bronx to Brewster with a stop in Briarcliff Manor, from 1894 to 1958

Recently discovered vintage film of the locomotives that traveled through Westchester and Putnam counties will be shown.